Submitted his report – now has an email address for Mike Powderley and has sent him a card from us all. John and Jane Horn ok and in Norfolk for Wedding Anniversary at the weekend. Colin Clews thinks he is away on cycling duties so assume ok. Brian Gromett has a pulled ligament in his leg we wish him a good recovery. Jim Green is in isolation on their canal boat on the Trent as Theresa has Covid and his mother unwell sent them our wishes.

Judy Watts now moved to Scafford Road Mccarthy development following a fall and a broken is being supported by her family.

Our thanks to David, the team agreed that Christmas Cards should be sent to all those unable to attend at this time and Rotary friends

Whats App

We now have a Membership Team group and all agreed it was a great way to keep in touch Julia to send a message to the Club to start the Group for us all members can opt out and this was approved at our last meeting. Going forward if this went well it was agreed that a social group could be set up for members to keep in touch at this time especially as some unable to attend meetings. If interested please contact Julia.

Action Julia send message

Mad Mac

Following the Mad Mac presentation by Amanda it was agreed that we would bring to the Club the opportunity to support them as our local Charity to help with recruitment and fundraising in our local area which we currently do not have.

Action Julia to raise at Council
